1. [ ] has returned from his trip to the West Coast where he tested some forty candidates for the Junior Officer Program. ~~Nearly all of these candidates had been screened by the Chief of this Division on his recent trip.~~ [ ] reports that in each instance he received the finest kind of cooperation from the PP/D representatives in the cities concerned; not only did they make completely adequate arrangements for the tests, but they also took considerable pains to entertain him and to make his stay pleasurable. The tests were given in Denver, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Seattle.

2. The Chief of this Division has studied with [redacted] tests and files of nineteen candidates tested in Denver and Los Angeles and will request actions in the cases of seven.

3. The indoctrination of nine Consultant-Contacts who arrived Monday, 4 May, will be completed tomorrow afternoon. Their names and the schedule of their activities are attached.

4. [ ] has been withdrawn at his own request from FSI where he was studying Arabic. He is now attending the Tenth Basic Intelligence School.

5. Interviews were held with five prospective candidates.
